One load of prisoners left this prison for an exchange Oct. 12th 1864.
Second load left Feb. 13th 1865.
I was admitted to the Hosp. March 4th. Discharged Apr. 24th.
Sunday April 29th 1863

I started from the Brigade Guard House April 30th about 8 o'clock P.M. and got to my Regt. Thursday evening at Fredericksburg and Saturday May 1st we marched 12 miles above Fredericksburg and went into a battle the same evening next morning we entered into another battle and kept it during the day with a heavy loss on our side of killed and wounded.
Coles's Brigade left Cant. near part Regt. to reinforce our army at Fredericksburg, April 29th and got there by Saturday, Friday 5th, then we still advanced our march about 12 miles that day, next morning we went on and enter into a battle that evening about 1 hour before sun set, which soon ended. May 3rd we went into it again which was not so easy as it our men being in the line of battle behind a breastwork.
Friday June 5th, 1863.
We started on a march from Fredericksburg 8 miles.

Saturday 6th.

which brought us beyond Culpep-
Office Court House.

Tuesday 9th.
We lay over till 3 o'clock and then countermanded near Caloting G. H. and back again to the same camp.

Wednesday 10th.
We marched a short distance.
Thursday 11th
We marched about 15 miles.

Friday 12th
We marched about 20 miles which put us beyond Front Royal.

Saturday 13th
We went within 3 miles of Winchester where there was some fighting done of which we were in hearing of.

Sunday 14th
We lay over the greater part of the day and marched all night.

Monday 15th
At the break of day we went into a general engagement which lasted about 1 hour.
Tuesday 16th
We lay over till 3 O'clock and then started to Maryland...

Wednesday 17th
We marched till 2 O'clock and then took up camp.

Thursday 18th
We marched through Shepherdstown and crossed the Potomac into Va.

Friday 19th
We staid in camp all day.

Saturday 20th
We marched through Sharpsburg and put up camp on the old battle field and staid there till Tuesday morning then we started to Pennsylvania

Wednesday 24th
We entered into Penn. and marched through Winchester, Mercersburg, and across the N. Me.

Thursday 25th
We lay over all day & night.

Friday 26th
We marched all day & joined through Loudon.

St. Thomas.

Saturday 27th
We marched through Chari-

lansburg & Shilfinsburg.

Sunday 28th
We marched a short distance
and took up camp near a big Spring & within 22
miles of Harrisburg.

Monday 29th
Tuesday 20th
We marched through Shippensburg.

Wednesday July 21st
We marched through Gettysville, Salem to Gettysburg which was the battlefield. We lay in a line of battle that night.

Thursday 22nd
We lay in line of battle all day and about night we went into a general engagement. I was wounded about one hour in the night.

Friday 24th
I got to the hospital about 15 miles from Gettysburg. I stayed until Monday morning.
Monday July 5th 1863.

This from there I walked to Gettysburg & went into the city

there where I stayed until Sunday 12th. Then I left Penn.

College a t Gettysburg a t 5 P.M. I took the train for Baltimore & arrived there next morning. I staid in the car till late in the evening then marched down to the field.

and from there that night I started to Phila. I went through

Wilmington Del. about 10 P.M. and got to Phila. about 12 M. That evening crossed the river in a boat & went onto N. Varick

& staid there in a car until next morning which was the 15th.

we then crossed back over the river into Phila. again and in the evening of 15th we got dinner & started till next morning which was the 16th then we left the host & took a Sloop about 11 O clock to 11 O clock & arrived the next day about 2 or 3 pm &
we then went up to Hudson River 22 miles to Board Island where we went in a hospital on Friday July 17th
and left Board Island on Saturday Sept. 5th
From Saturday night till Monday morning we
The battle of The Wilderness Commenced Thursday May the 5th day 1864 about 10 o'clock the 2nd Ct. Rept. was engaged and was engaged for the balance of the day. It made 2 charges and then fell back and commenced entrenching where it stood Thursday night Friday night and also Saturday night about dark, then marched down our line of breast-works to the woods and lay in an old field until Sunday morning, then we started and bracketed for all day and shifted about night and threw up breastwork[s] and there we staid till day Monday & Monday night. Tuesday we moved to the right and threw up more breastwork[s] and that evening we made a charge and ran the gun out of our breastwork[s] went back to our old position where we stood the balance of the night and also next day a little was Wednesday that night we moved more a few hundred yards into the woods and stayed next morning which was Thursday we went back to our breastworks and was taken as prisoners and marched up to the rear of the enemy about three miles where we staid until Friday morning then we started and marched to Beef Island which was about 2 3 miles where we staid until Tuesday about 12 o'clock then we went on board the boat and staid until Wednesday morning about day then we started to print.
Look out Md. and got there Wednesday May the 18th day 1864 and was marched into the prison about dark the same day where I staid until Sunday morning July the 24th day then I went out of that pen and left the prison by steam boat the next night about 2 O'clock for Camp Elmira N.Y.

Wednesday the 27th the boat arrived at Jersey City about 2 O'clock and we left there by cars about 1 1/2 O'clock and we arrived at Elmira Thursday morning the 28th of July 1864.
Released from prison
