Civil War Diaries

Letter written by Corporal J. Nelson to his sister. The letter is dated May 31st 1864.

This pamphlet contains two primary historical accounts of the experiences of the 25th Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry during

Beginning of the march from Atlanta to the sea: a diary by Alonzo B. Lothrop and Frank B. Lothrop, with a letter written by Joseph

Later, Hinkley speculates on charges of incompetence being leveled at General McClellan (18 December 1862) and

Entries describe the weather and the time of daily drills and dress parades, but the diary also documents such events as the fall of

Edwin F. Holmes

1863; expedition against Fort Hindman, Arkansas; operations during the Vicksburg campaign, including the sieges of Vicksburg and

A. Mauney was one of the founding fathers of Kings Mountain. A 45 page transcript of the diary and the record of Company B volunteers the time it was donated. W.A. Mauney enlisted in the army and the diary has daily entries from 1861-1865 about the events, activities,

John Ogden Murray would later receive the Medal of Honor for his heroic leadership. The diary continues during Hill’s recovery, chronicling his progress and

Charles Wills was discharged on December 5, 1862, for wounds received at the Battle of Antietam. The Diary contains entries from February 25 of General Hood through Tennessee; and the Mobile campaign, including the Siege of Spanish Fort.

Alexander E. Steen

A journal written by Josephus Moore describing his enlistment into the army in Tennessee at the outbreak of the Civil War, his experience

Indiana Light Artillery, Underwood writes in his diary from January 1 through December 31, 1864. He records his activities in camp, at times you might imagine Albert Underwood is sitting across the table from you telling you his story. A private in the 9th Battery

Albert S. Underwood Diary, 1864 [transcript]

Other military officials

Washington D.C. Once there, he supported the Union war effort by translating articles in foreign newspapers for the Secretary of State.

Exceptional Content...Legendary Service
Civil War Diaries

of Richard G. Woodson, of Pike County, Missouri, colonel of the 3rd Missouri State Militia (New). The papers concern employment and records the sentiments of the people he encounters. After the Civil War ended in 1865, Van Buskirk, despondent and near Manassas, Virginia. He deserted in 1862 and wrote in his diary that he had made an "escape from his regiment" most likely because Confederate infantryman and later deserted. An earlier volume detailing events from 1861 to 1862 was taken from him when he

Samuel Hoey Walkup was a colonel of the 48th North Carolina Infantry Regiment, Confederate States of America. The collection contains three diaries that detail battles, troop movements, exchanges with Confederates while on picket, and notes the deaths of various sources of entertainment: several visits to the theater; sketching; preaching; swimming and exploring the landscape. Many capture, imprisonment, and subsequent return home after the end of the war.

W.L. Judson

Longstreet, Alexander Peter Stewart, Robert Augustus Toombs, Joseph Wheeler, and William Henry Chase Whiting. Also included is a collection that chronicles Cyrus Franklin Jenkins' experiences as an enlisted man in the Meriwether Volunteers, Company B, 13th Georgia Infantry Regiment, during the first year of the war, June 1861 to March 1862. Jenkins vividly describes the early euphoria of the war and the regiment's campaigns in western Virginia (now West Virginia) as part of Floyd's Brigade and in Savannah in Lawton's

Archives, chronicles Cyrus Franklin Jenkins' experiences as an enlisted man in the Meriwether Volunteers, Company B, 13th

In this diary, Bacon describes daily life in the Seventh Michigan Infantry. He gives vivid accounts of Yorktown, Fair Oaks, White Oak the regiment proceeded to Martinsburg, West Virginia, where it drilled until May 19, when ordered to Fort Lyon, Virginia, from which it on March 8th and 9th, 1862.

Camp Life of a Confederate Boy, of Bratton's Brigade, Longstreet's Corps, C. S. A : Letters Written by Lieut. Richard Lewis, of this diary, Bacon describes daily life in the Seventh Michigan Infantry. He gives vivid accounts of Yorktown, Fair Oaks, White Oak as Tunnel Hill, Dalton, and Resaca (Ga.), and the evacuation of Atlanta.

Cyrena Bailey Stone diary, 1864

entries of interest include a description of the Union Army at Cold Harbor (June 3-4, 1864), and in the Petersburg campaign (June, 1864-April, 1865). Entries of interest include a description of Hart described marches, skirmishes and battles as his Regiment traveled with General Sherman to Atlanta. Hart was home on furlough in March, 1864. Diary ends in July, 1864 after the battle of Raynham, Massachusetts, the son of Chandler Robbins Dean and Abigail [Bissn?]]. Dean married Augusta Dunbar (born October 1826) goods, and the names of comrades killed, wounded and captured. The diary's entries conclude with June 13, 1865: "I washed my shirt."

s career, accompanying him to postings in Montgomery, Alabama. The diary begins at the outbreak of the Civil War, when she was a student. She gives a detailed account of war-time activities in Norfolk, Virginia including the fall of that city and being evacuated. The diary describes the voyage from New York to Halifax, Nova Scotia and the return voyage on the brigantine the Standard of Windsor, after the Civil War, and peace-keeping activities during Reconstruction. The collection also contains a few letters from Pease's brothers, Dixon Pease and J.W. Pease, written in 1865 and 1866.

Diary of Cloe Tyler Whittle Greene, July 30, 1862 - September 27, 1863. The diary begins at the outbreak of the Civil War, when she was a student. She gives a detailed account of war-time activities in Norfolk, Virginia including the fall of that city and being evacuated. The diary describes the voyage from New York to Halifax, Nova Scotia and the return voyage on the brigantine the Standard of Windsor, after the Civil War, and peace-keeping activities during Reconstruction. The collection also contains a few letters from Pease's brothers, Dixon Pease and J.W. Pease, written in 1865 and 1866.

Diary of Cloe Tyler Whittle Greene, July 30, 1862 - September 27, 1863. The diary begins at the outbreak of the Civil War, when she was a student. She gives a detailed account of war-time activities in Norfolk, Virginia including the fall of that city and being evacuated. The diary describes the voyage from New York to Halifax, Nova Scotia and the return voyage on the brigantine the Standard of Windsor, after the Civil War, and peace-keeping activities during Reconstruction. The collection also contains a few letters from Pease's brothers, Dixon Pease and J.W. Pease, written in 1865 and 1866.

Carlos Colby letters, 1862-1864

Franklin Denny

James E. Green Diary, 1863-1872

James Aker diary, 1864. This collection consists of a diary that covers Civil War events like marching through Tennessee and the James River Campaign. The diary describes the capture of Vicksburg and the Union occupation of Richmond and Norfolk, Virginia. The diary contains a letter to her husband on April 14, 1864 and trace his regiment's movements and battles, particularly those at New Market and Piedmont. The entries cease with the end of the war in 1865.

Bennett provides colorful insight to his perspective into letters to his wife, Melissa. The diary documents Bennett's every day actions from the day he joined the military until he sends this diary home to his wife, Melissa.

This is the diary of Joseph Priest who served as a hospital steward and pharmacist for the Union Army from June to September 1864. The diary begins with a letter describing the capture of Richmond, Virginia by Union forces. The diary documents Bennett's every day actions from the day he joined the military until he sends this diary home to his wife, Melissa.

The diary of Jacob Wallace Smiley, a Union sharpshooter with the 7th Company, 1st Battalion, New York Sharpshooters, in the summer of 1864. The diary describes his experiences as a soldier in the Union Army, including battles at the Battle of the Wilderness and the Battle of Spotsylvania. The diary contains a letter to his wife, Melissa, describing the capture of Richmond, Virginia by Union forces.

Diary of John Stuchal, 1864. The collection consists of the diary of John Stuchal, a soldier with the 133rd Pennsylvania Infantry in the Union Army. The diary documents Stuchal's experiences as a soldier in the Civil War, including battles at the Battle of the Wilderness, the Battle of Spotsylvania, and the Battle of Cold Harbor. The diary contains a letter to his wife, Melissa, describing the capture of Richmond, Virginia by Union forces.

This is the diary of Joshua Breyfogle in 1864; a typescript of the Civil War diary of Joshua Breyfogle in 1864; a typescript of Joshua Breyfogle's Civil War diary in 1864; a typescript of the Civil War diary of Joshua Breyfogle in 1864. The collection consists of a Civil War diary written by Joshua Breyfogle in 1864; a typescript of the Civil War diary of Joshua Breyfogle in 1864; a typescript of Joshua Breyfogle's Civil War diary in 1864; a typescript of the Civil War diary of Joshua Breyfogle in 1864. The collection contains short entries spanning one year, beginning with Marshall's enlistment on February 24, 1864. The diary's early entries contain short entries spanning one year, beginning with Marshall's enlistment on February 24, 1864. The diary's early entries contain short entries spanning one year, beginning with Marshall's enlistment on February 24, 1864. The diary's early entries contain short entries spanning one year, beginning with Marshall's enlistment on February 24, 1864.

The diary of Jacob Wallace Smiley, a Union sharpshooter with the 7th Company, 1st Battalion, New York Sharpshooters, in the summer of 1864. The diary describes his experiences as a soldier in the Union Army, including battles at the Battle of the Wilderness and the Battle of Spotsylvania. The diary contains a letter to his wife, Melissa, describing the capture of Richmond, Virginia by Union forces.

This is the 33-page diary of Isaac B. Brown who served with the 211th Pennsylvania Infantry. The diary contains entries, January-October 1864, describing his experiences as a soldier in the Union Army. The diary's early entries contain short entries spanning one year, beginning with Marshall's enlistment on February 24, 1864. The diary's early entries contain short entries spanning one year, beginning with Marshall's enlistment on February 24, 1864. The diary's early entries contain short entries spanning one year, beginning with Marshall's enlistment on February 24, 1864.

This is the diary of Isaac B. Brown who served with the 211th Pennsylvania Infantry. The diary contains entries, January-October 1864, describing his experiences as a soldier in the Union Army. The diary's early entries contain short entries spanning one year, beginning with Marshall's enlistment on February 24, 1864. The diary's early entries contain short entries spanning one year, beginning with Marshall's enlistment on February 24, 1864. The diary's early entries contain short entries spanning one year, beginning with Marshall's enlistment on February 24, 1864.

This is the 33-page diary of Isaac B. Brown who served with the 211th Pennsylvania Infantry. The diary contains entries, January-October 1864, describing his experiences as a soldier in the Union Army. The diary's early entries contain short entries spanning one year, beginning with Marshall's enlistment on February 24, 1864. The diary's early entries contain short entries spanning one year, beginning with Marshall's enlistment on February 24, 1864. The diary's early entries contain short entries spanning one year, beginning with Marshall's enlistment on February 24, 1864.

This is the diary of Isaac B. Brown who served with the 211th Pennsylvania Infantry. The diary contains entries, January-October 1864, describing his experiences as a soldier in the Union Army. The diary's early entries contain short entries spanning one year, beginning with Marshall's enlistment on February 24, 1864. The diary's early entries contain short entries spanning one year, beginning with Marshall's enlistment on February 24, 1864. The diary's early entries contain short entries spanning one year, beginning with Marshall's enlistment on February 24, 1864.

This is the 33-page diary of Isaac B. Brown who served with the 211th Pennsylvania Infantry. The diary contains entries, January-October 1864, describing his experiences as a soldier in the Union Army. The diary's early entries contain short entries spanning one year, beginning with Marshall's enlistment on February 24, 1864. The diary's early entries contain short entries spanning one year, beginning with Marshall's enlistment on February 24, 1864. The diary's early entries contain short entries spanning one year, beginning with Marshall's enlistment on February 24, 1864.
The diary's entries span the first half of 1863 through 1864 and touch on such matters as camp life, the U. S. Army's advance down

William Legg Henderson was born in Old Deer, Aberdeenshire, Scotland on March 28, 1833. He came to America in 1846 and settled

William Legg Henderson journal #10, September 16 - November 25, 1965

William Legg Henderson journal #09, July 1 - September 16, 1865

William Legg Henderson journal #05, July 13 - November 6, 1864

Maysville, Kentucky and was buried in the Mason County Cemetery.

Eli H. Page

s Legion, 38th Georgia Infantry Regiment. He the Atlanta City Council and as a judge of the Inferior Court of Fulton County. Although he opposed secession, Hanleiter served in

Charles Craver Pocket diary. 1863, Jan. 1 -- Apr. 7

Henry Corbin diary. Date: Apr. 20 1863 - Sep. 22 1864.

Henry C. Dickinson

This is the 1862 diary of Henry C. Ash who served with the 8th New Hampshire Infantry during the Civil War.

vividly recounts the battles at Spotsylvania, 2nd Cold Harbor, Monocacy, Cool Spring, Berryville, Opequon, Fisher's Hill and Cedar 1865 Civil War diary of Henry Albert Potter documenting the events between January 1, 1865- December 31, 1865. In this diary,

Henry A. Potter Diary, 1865

state service for a term of three years. He began his service in coastal South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. Transferred to Virginia in

The diary of Private Henry L. Burnell, Co. "I," 8th Maine Volunteer Infantry, 1859 - 1865. Burnell served in the Union Army from September 36th Regiment of Wisconsin Volunteers.

June-September, 1864; in Savannah, Ga., December 1864; Columbia, S.C., February 1865; in Goldsboro, N.C., March-April 1865;

Edward W. Allen Papers 1865-1866 and undated

Edward W. Allen Papers September-December 1864

Edward W. Allen Papers June 1862-April 1864

Edward F. Winslow memoir, 1863-1865

for adopting a new constitution, as well as several receipts and clippings. Ebenezer Erskine Mason was born August 29, 1829, in Maine.

well whether or not Congress was in session. The diary also includes a short poem (original?) and some account information in the back.

Delia Locke Diary, 1862-1869.

Delia Locke

a state senator and railroad commissioner.

David James Palmer papers, January-June 1864

David James Palmer papers, August-December 1863.

The collection consists of correspondence from Civil War soldiers Charles A.J. Martin, James K. Polk Martin, and probable cousin H.L.

and stockade. Also in the collection are three documents concerning death benefits paid to Mrs. Chapin for her son's military service.

on December 31, 1865 in Brunswick, Missouri.

guerrilla warfare, and writes about mourning the death of President Lincoln. Attached is an invitation to a New Year and cannons "for the death of Abraham Lincoln President of the U.S. who was shot by a man by the name of Booth."

or received; war news; or when he attended religious meetings. Shortly before the diary ends in April 1865, he notes the firing of guns to his daily activities: who or what he was conveying to and from the hospital at City Point outside Petersburg; what letters he sent

Five Months in Rebeldom: Notes from the diary of a Bull Run prisoner at Richmond by Corporal William H. Merrill, CoIor Guard, Co. E.,

Reminiscences of the civil war; comp. from the war correspondence of Colonel William P. Lyon and from personal letters and diary by

William Sylvester Dillon

24th, 1865. Standard was promoted to first lieutenant of Company A on February 23, 1865, with rank effective from January 15, 1865.

A, 103rd Regiment. He mustered into active service with his unit on October 2, 1862, in Peoria, Illinois. Over the course of the war, the

William Standard Diary, February 1865

Willis B. Keith

This diary begins with Sigwalt's daily life on a farm in Long Grove and continues with his enlistment and involvement in the 88th

Charles Sigwalt, originally a resident of Long Grove, Illinois, went on to become a prominent businessman, Postmaster and eventually

Charles Sigwalt Diary vol. 3 (January 1, 1864 - December 31, 1864)

Charles Sigwalt Diary vol. 2 (January 1, 1863 - January 21, 1864)

four maps drawn by Gates including the battery's first winter camp at Camp California near Alexandria, Virginia; a map of the the envelopes, including Union icons and likenesses of McClellan, George Washington, and the Sons of Erin. Among the contents are his experiences and thoughts about the war. This collection is comprised of 39 of those letters written between September 1861 managing supplies of forage for the horses. He was present at the battles of Harper's Ferry, Antietam, Chancellorsville and Richmond.

Milton S. Koontz, 1865, Sketchbook

Miles Beaty letters, 1862-1863

Adventures of an Army Nurse in Two Wars. Edited from the Diary and Correspondence of Mary Phinney Olnhausen.

made extensive use of Chesnut
Hospital pencillings - being a diary while in Jefferson General Hospital, Jeffersonville, Ind., and others at Nashville, Tennessee, as matron Elvira Ascenith Weir Scott, Diary, 1860-1887

The collection contains the Civil War diary of Collier, which details her reactions to the war.

The field diary of a Confederate soldier, while serving with the Army of Northern Virginia, C. S. A.

Sarah Morgan Dawson

War Diary of a Union Woman in the South: 1860-63. George Washington Cable, ed.

her experiences during and after the Civil War.

biblical texts referred to in the sermons he hears. Interestingly, his rudimentary spelling throughout the diary gives way to more formal

'Gideon Welles'
s duties, such as guarding the transports

This 110-page book about the 30th Wisconsin Infantry lists all field and staff officers, sergeants, corporals, musicians, wagoners and his work near Vicksburg, Mississippi, cutting wood, clearing brush, and working on the ice boat; the difficulties of getting food rations

William E. Stork Diary vol. 2

Elisha J. Bracken

Civil War diary of Sherman Lincoln dated 1861-1862. In this diary, he discusses morale, joining his regiment, sailing from New where Dolen was involved in skirmishes from Goldsboro, N.C., to Raleigh, N.C.. On 13 April 1865, he learned of Lincoln's assassination the burning of Atlanta, Ga., and the Battle of Jonesboro, Ga. After the regiment traveled to Savannah, Ga., it headed to North Carolina

Jackson, Virginia, his journey through Virginia, and his encampment outside of Richmond. He records in great detail observations on and chief tax collector for Louisiana during the Civil War.

Robert M. Lusher diary, 1862

Conard was mustered into Company A of the 135th Regiment of the National Guard of Ohio on May 8, 1864, and left the army in September.

describes the stocking and opening of the store, the town, and the townspeople. Perry P. Powell was a Union soldier in the 1st Illinois

Lee, the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, the explosion of the steamer Sultana in the Mississippi River, and the capture of Jefferson

Powell is still at home in Waukegan, Illinois. He enlists on February 20, 1865 and starts for Camp Butler in Springfield, Illinois. He arrives

Henry Stanley Diary transcript

Henry Squire

1865. Pages 76-80 consist of recollected anecdotes. Whipple took part in the Siege of Vicksburg and in the battles of Port Gibson,

Henry Pollard Whipple

mid 1864. Skaggs documented his travels throughout Missouri and Arkansas noting skirmishes and battles that he encountered,

Henry E. Skaggs joined the United States Military in September of 1862 at the age of thirty-three where he was enlisted as a Sergeant the Battle of Corinth, the sieges of Vicksburg and Chattanooga, and the battles at Champion Hill, Lookout Mountain and Missionary race issues in the South, and much of his personal history. The 1913 diary contains extra pages on which Wilson recorded events from the second volume dates from December 18, 1863 to April 6, 1864, and describes his time in Libby Prison, Sherman's advance on at the battle of Shiloh and hospitalized in Nashville, Tennessee's University Hospital. The diary details his travels, thoughts, purchases,

James Robertson was a native of Clifton, Iowa, in Louisa County. He was a private in Company C, 8th Iowa Infantry, was taken prisoner s entries document his Civil War less than a month later, he joined the Cole County Home Guard. Mengel was taken prisoner at the Battle of Lexington where he diary describes his capture while foraging for water the day after the Battle of Chickamauga, where he was serving with the 84th

a prisoner of war before being exchanged in April 1864. He was discharged from the Army due to wounds on 22 September 1864.

was eventually taken to Libby Prison in Richmond, Va., travelling through Chattanooga, Tenn.; Atlanta, Ga.; Augusta, Ga.; Columbia, S.

John Dolen was a laborer in Company C of the 12th Louisiana Infantry and enlisted 10 August 1861. He served in Arkansas, Missouri, Ohio, and Mississippi. Hoskin's diary describes these battles and the mundane routine of military life. Includes original and typescript of diary.

James Dolen's Civil War diary

Battery activities, dated September 1, 1864 (covering the period May - August) and December 25, 1864 (covering the period September

J. Shoemaker's Company, Virginia Horse Artillery. Included are brief accounts of various skirmishes and the Battle of Cedar

William J. Black Civil War Diary transcript

April and participated in the siege of Vicksburg and, later, in Sherman's march to the sea. He mustered out with his regiment in June, 1865.

in Ohio in 1838. While working as a Missouri schoolteacher in 1862, Pittenger enlisted in Company D of the 93rd Illinois Infantry. In Herbert E. Valentine
Henry Warren Howe
from Marianna, Ark.

Henry S. Eggleston, Letters.
a doctor at the facility. African-American soldiers of the 54th Massachusetts Regiment were serving as nurses. Thompson expresses

Other notes include list, "Rebel Cavalry" naming officers of "Kelly's Division" and other regiments; and addresses of his fellow inmates,

Harriet H. A. Eaton Diaries, 1862-1864, constitute a detailed record of Eaton's observations and feelings as a U.S. Army nurse visiting

H.M. Cheavens
H. W. Santelle

original battlefield map showing Smith's route through Virginia in the vicinity of Fairfax Court House (1861).

Campaign in Virginia, and operations of the Georgia Militia near Atlanta during the 1864 Atlanta Campaign. Also included is an camps described are Springfield, Gratiot Street, St. Louis, and Macon City, Missouri; Fort Delaware, Alton and Camp Douglas, Illinois;

of camp life in the Union armies during the Civil War, by Willoughby M. Babcock, Jr.

were prepared by C. P. Weaver and are included in the collection.

In volume one of the diary, Daniels describes his Civil War service as colonel of the 2nd Regiment of the Louisiana Native Guard, an of Colonel Nathan W. Daniels (Baton Rouge, 1998). The last third of the volume spans the period September 1863 to May 1864,

Nathan W. Daniels Diary Summaries and transcripts by C. P. Weaver; Diary 3
Nathan W. Daniels Diary; Vol. III, 1866-1867
Nathan W. Daniels Diary; Vol. II, 1864, May-1865, Dec
Nathan W. Daniels Diary; Vol. I, 1861, Dec.-1864, May

Iowa Infantry Regiment, 20th (1862-1865). Grand Army of the Republic. August Wentz Post No. 1 (Davenport, Iowa)

This is the diary of George W. Bisbee who served with the 9th Vermont Infantry during the Civil War. It contains entries January 1-

Diary with the names of dying Federal soldiers to whom he ministered at Andersonville, Ga. July and August, 1864 / ed. by George Robbins.

stripped of all their clothes and ran out in the rain, s Creek. Palmer recalls that during a storm in camp, 100 men from Col. Williams

s diary, written July-August, 1861, records daily life in his company of dragoons. Palmer writes of

Albert Ellithorpe
was Commonwealth's attorney of the city of Richmond from 1870 to 1889, when he resigned.

1st Kansas Infantry. Ellithorpe captured the diary from Falconer during the Battle of Locust Grove on July 3, 1862." The majority of the

George Anderson Mercer diary Volume 3, 3 March 1862-14 September 1863, typed copy
George Anderson Mercer diary Transcription Volume 2, 15 June 1860-17 December 1865

in Virginia. by Castleman, Alfred L. (Alfred Lewis), 1809-1877. Published 1863

Salmon P. Chase
John Jackson Kellogg
Under the flag of the Nation; diaries and letters of a Yankee volunteer in the Civil War. Edited by Otto F. Bond.

Owen Johnston Hopkins
January 1, 1864-July 21, 1864; edited, with an introduction, notes, and maps, by Wirt Armistead Cate.

Wirt Armistead Cate

Floride Clemson
Robert Garlick Hill Kean

of Savannah, representative of Hope Mutual Insurance Company of New York, and director of the Atlantic and Gulf Railroad Company and later commanding the river batteries in the Georgia Military District with headquarters in Savannah. After the war, he was mayor

Edward Clifford Anderson Papers, Diary, 1861-1862

s assassination and other

Franklin W. Fuller's Civil War Diary, February 15-March 26, 1864.  Franklin W. Fuller of Pecatonica, Illinois served in the 74th Illinois family and comparing them to a fly being lured by a spider--the lure in this case being the promise of eleven dollars a month. Also on Union soldiers. Elsewhere, she reports the surrenders of New Orleans and Vicksburg. On a few occasions, Murdoch expresses her fear of proclamation for a day of prayer and fasting. On April 18, 1862, Murdoch expresses thanks for what she considers a Confederate victory and Philippi, Virginia. After the Battle of Manassas, her entries focus more on war rumors and news. She mentions a personal the diary were written in Chattanooga, Tennessee, and a list in the back of the diary has the names of soldiers and whether they

G. L. MacMurphy Diary 1864/1865
G. L. MacMurphy Diary 1860/1863

York Volunteer Infantry. Mattimore's diary entries began August 11, 1862.

Massachusetts Volunteers at Camp Burnside, Indianapolis, Indiana.

Eugene R. Sly Diary transcript, 1864
Erich Pape Quartermaster's Account Book, 1862

had died
Civil War Diaries

Samuel A. Agnew - Volume 8: 12 September 1864-10 December 1865

Moyle, a resident of Hillsboro, Iowa, (Henry Co.), was a member of the 25th Regiment of Iowa Volunteers and participated in the siege

The Rachel Carter Craighead diaries span the latter half of the nineteenth century and the early twentieth century, and they provide Virginia (Martinsburg, Harpers Ferry, Winchester, Staunton, Fredericksburg). Of note are the entries about sociability between and activities, war news, and wartime conditions.; Philander Smith was born in 1835. He married Sarah S. Allee, and lived in in 1865.

A diary (1864-1865) kept by Captain Peter Ake, Missouri Volunteer Cavalry, in which he wrote mostly about his travels, the weather, the 25 are the name, rank, unit, and address of one Confederate officer, a surgeon, David P. LaGrone.

Huey met while a prisoner of war, including L. G. Billings, Chauncey Miller, O. S. Sanford, B. F. Campbell, J. S. Hammell, Chas. H.

While he was a prisoner of war in Charleston, South Carolina. In this 25-page document, Huey recounts the events of his capture on

Bell Island

These diaries belonged to Civil War soldier Patrick Casey from the 104th Regiment New York Volunteer Infantry, during the year of 1863-

Diary of Patrick Casey, 1864-65

63rd regiment O. V. I.

Letters to his father, sister and brother in Albia, Monroe County, Iowa and journal excerpts concerning camp life and activities;

Recollections of the Civil War : with many original diary entries and letters written from the seat of war, and with annotated references.

of news and visits from them. George, in the 55th Regiment, North Carolina Troops, was captured and imprisoned at Johnsons Island.

Mary Jeffreys  Bethell , 1853-1873

in the Washington, D.C. Mary lived with her family in the Smithsonian Institution Building, or Castle, and witnessed the tumultuous years

Diary of Mary Henry, daughter of the first Smithsonian Secretary Joseph Henry. This diary spans the years of 1864-1868 and covers life

Diary of Mary Henry 1864-1868  [transcription]

Martin Link

The fifth diary begins October 6, 1862, beginning, not as a diary, but as his recollections of his first two months of service, during which visiting volunteer soldiers.

Southern secession. He attached clippings of an article he wrote for the Philadelphia Enquirer noting strong union sympathies lawyer, editor, and author of History of Huntingdon County (1876).

Milton Scott Lytle (1842-1915) of Spruce Creek, Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania, graduated from The Farmers' High School hospitalized with typhoid fever. He fought in the battles at Lookout Mountain and Chickamauga, and participated in the taking of

M.L. Gordon

–

Lewis Leon

Officer in the 50th Pennsylvania Volunteers.
President Lincoln, Secretary Stanton, General-In-Chief Halleck, and with Generals McDo... of the Civil War with special reference to the work for the contrabands and freedmen

Reminiscences of the Civil War. 1903.
John B. Gordon

Army Life - A Private's Reminiscences of the Civil War, 1882.
Richard W. Johnson

Silas Weir Mitchell, M.D.
A Sailor's Log - Recollections of Forty Years of Naval Life, 1901.
Personal Recollections of William T. Sherman, 1902.
John J. Garnett

Memoirs of the war of secession (1910).
John Hagood, Brigadier-General, C. S. A.

A narrative of the formation and services of the Eleventh Massachusetts Volunteers, from April 15, 1861, to July 14, 1865. (1893).
Henry Hamilton

the Battle of Seven Pines (1915).
Giles B. Cooke

Abraham Howbert - Reminiscences of the war (1888)
John H. Lewis - Recollections from 1860 to 1865.

With the Invading Army
The Fortunes of War
a Prisoner of War

D.M. Kelsey - Deeds of daring by the American soldier, North and South on each side the line during the civil war. Revised Edition

American War and the American Civil War, and completed as he was dying of throat

The Personal Memoirs of Ulysses S. Grant is an autobiography by Ulysses S. Grant, the 18th President of the United States, focused

Personal Memoirs of Ulysses S. Grant , Vol. 2, 1886
Personal Memoirs of Ulysses S. Grant , Vol. 1, 1886

John Daniel

William C. Chase

Augustus L. Chetlain

Alonzo Foster

Fort Delaware to Morris' Island to be punished (1869).

Recollections of a fire insurance man, including his experience in U.S. Navy (Mississippi squadron) during the Civil War (1909).

was promoted rapidly to lieutenant colonel. After his discharge Draper was awarded the brevet grades of colonel and brigadier general Regiment, Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry, on September 9, 1861. He was soon elected Second Lieutenant of his company and

Recollections of a lifetime (1904)
Roeliff Brinkerhoff

Philip F. Brown

Our battery; or, The journal of Company B, 1st O.V.A. (1864).

Orlando Phelps Cutter

General John Adams Dix was born in Boscawen, New Hampshire in 1798. In his youth, he was educated by his father; he spent a year at Phillips Exeter Academy, and then went to the College of Montreal in 1810. His time at university was cut short by outbreak of the War

Memoirs of John Adams Dix, vol. 2, 1883
Memoirs of John Adams Dix, vol. 1, 1883

Miriam Rivers

Letters and journals of Thomas Wentworth Higginson, 1846-1906 (1921).

Mary Potter Higginson

Personal reminiscences, 1840-1890 (1893), including some not hitherto published of Lincoln and the war.

Eleven days in the militia during the war of the rebellion ; a journal of the "emergency" campaign of 1862.

Kemp Battle

Kate M. Rowland

Joseph Grant

Jonathan Letterman

Recollections Of A Naval Life Including The Cruises Of The Confederate States Steamers "Sumter" And "Alabama"

the Mississippi River.

1864. Wilkins describes the skirmishes they had with the Confederate Army and how they were able to push them back. He was also Sherman's staff in the South Atlantic campaign, on McClellan's staff in the Maryland campaign, and on Grant's staff in Mississippi.

and while he was in the Confederate Congress he acted as an aide to Jubal Early during the recess periods.

Recollections of a Lifetime, 1906 - Goode's Confederate experiences, which included service in the Virginia secession convention.

John Goode

A Private in Gray - Narrative of a soldier who served in the Army of Northern Virginia(1905).

Thomas Benton Reed

General James Longstreet.

William McLendon

John Scouller Mcculloch

Reminiscences of the 123d Regiment, N.Y.S.V., giving a complete history of its three years service in the war (1879).

Reminiscences of the 1st North Carolina Infantry Regiment

Record of the Ninety-Fourth Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry in the War of the Rebellion.

Reminiscences- Brigadier General Collett Leventhorpe.

Collett Leventhorpe

Harry Martyn Kieffer

William T. Sherman

Samuel Daniel Marshbourn

William Henry Morgan

Civil war diary of Henry B. Sparks, company C, 3rd Indiana cavalry, 1864.

Reminiscences- Calvin Whit Lloyd, in the form of a newspaper clipping.

Reminiscences of Four Years as a Private Soldier in the Confederate Army, 1904.

Ward Hill Lamon

From Manassas to Appomattox - Memoirs of the Civil War in America, 1896.

James Longstreet

William J. Jones

A Narrative of the Campaign in the Shenandoah Valley in 1861, (1865).

Robert Patterson

The Reminiscences of Neal Dow- Recollections of Eighty Years, 1898.

Neal Dow

her Residence among the Mormons; her Love Affairs, Courtships, Marriages, &c., &c.

as Lieutenant Harry T. Buford, Confederate States army in which is given a full Descriptions of the numerous Battles In which

The Woman in Battle: A narrative of the exploits, adventures, and travels of Madame Loreta Janeta Valezquez, otherwise known

Loreta Valezquez

Reminiscences of the First Company of Richmond Howitzers (1909).

From Sail to Steam; Recollections of Naval Life (1907).

Illinois Commandery,1889

Reminiscences - John W. Lay, 4th North Carolina Cavalry, Company E.

John W. Lay

Horace B. Little

Memoirs of James Curtis Mahan, 1919.

James Curtis Mahan

Personal recollections of the civil war (1918).

Camp, field and prison life : containing sketches of service in the South, and the experience, incidents and observations connected

W.A. Wash

Alfred S. Roe

Battles and sketches of the Army of Tennessee.

History of the Fifty-third regiment Ohio volunteer infantry, during the war of the rebellion, 1861 to 1865. Together with more than

John W. Duke

and character, and brief notices of current events during that period.

complete chronology of the war, and a digest of the pension laws of the United States..

W. J.  Davidson

Reminiscences of a Private, 1910.

Reminiscences of the Civil War, 1861-1865 (1909).

A Narrative of Events Connected with His Mortal Wounding at Antietam, 1895.

Camp Fires of the Confederacy- A Volume of Humorous Anecdotes, Reminiscences, Deeds of Heroism ... (1898).

Recollections of Henry Watkins Allen, Brigadier-General Confederate States Army, Ex-Governor of Louisiana, 1866.

Sarah A. Dorsey

transporting wounded Civil War soldiers made him an innovator in hospital design

A Civil War surgeon, he established field hospitals at battles of Chancellorsville and Gettysburg. Billings

John Shaw Billings

A memoir of the last year of the war for independence, in the Confederate States of America (1867).

Jubal A. Early

Recollections of the civil war and going West to grow up with the country (1906).

Historical Reminiscences of the War or incidents which transpired in and about Chambersburg, during the War of the Rebellion.

James Morris Morgan

Of The Rebellion, Including Statistical Information Pertaining To Prisoners Of War; With A List Of Otficers Who Were Prisoners Of War

Andersonville, Savannah, Millen, Charleston, And Columbia A General Account Of Prison Life And Prisons In The South During The War

War Reminiscences by the Surgeon of Mosby's Command (1890).

Aristides Monteiro

Albert Lawson

Frederick W. Keil

A Narrative of Service with the Third Wisconsin Infantry, 1912.

the Carolinas under General Wm. Tecumseh Sherman.

Matthew H. Jamison

Dennis Haynes

George B. Guild

And Others In Command Of The Armies In The Field, And His Impressions Of These Men.
Civil War Diaries

The Sherman Letters, Correspondence Between General and Senator Sherman from 1837 to 1891, 1894. Rachel Sherman Thorndike, ed.

The American Civil War body of literature. With the 2nd Massachusetts, he saw action at many important battles, including Gettysburg. He served the entire war and this collection 1861, immediately after the firing on Fort Sumter. Charles F. Morse was soon among them, eventually rising to the rank of Letters Written During the Civil War 1861-1865, 1898. The Second Massachusetts Infantry Regiment was organized in April, Charles F. Morse of his troops at Chancellorsville and Gettysburg was criticized, but he apparently retained the respect of his fellow officers.

the Second Battle of Bull Run (August 1862) and at the battles of Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, and Chattanooga (all 1863). The conduct S. Grant.

the author was weak in the area of grammar.

Satirical account of the Civil War. Published in 1864, this volume contains a collection of letters, that were published in a no

Carl Schurz -The Reminiscences of Carl Schurz, Vol. 2,1907

Gerrit Smith - Speeches and letters of Gerrit Smith ... on the rebellion, Vol. 2(1864).

My cave life in Vicksburg - With letters of trial and travel (1864). The soldier boy, Martin A.

A minor war history compiled from a soldier boy's letters to the girl I left behind me, 1861-1864...(1916). The soldier boy, Martin A.

in hometown newspapers, letters written home by soldiers. This collection of Mercer County, Illinois, letters are a great cross-section of Civil war letters, 1861 to 1865 (1909). The letters published herein are copies of letters written to my mother during the civil war

Morgan Ebenezer Wescott

Letters of Capt. George Hamilton Perkins, 1886.

John Pendleton Kennedy

Civil War Letters of Milton Currey of Metamora, Indiana, Sergeant In Company C, 68th Indiana Infantry (1863).

Speeches of General U.S. Grant, being extracts from speeches, letters, orders, military and state papers (1868).

Grant, Ulysses S. General Grant's letters to a friend, 1861-1880 (1897).

in 1862-3 (1863).

Lee's Dispatches- Unpublished letters of Robert E. Lee, C.S.A. To Jeflferson Davis and the War Department of The Confederate States

Ulysses S. Grant - Conversations and Unpublished Letters; ca. 1897.

second Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry; on detached service with Battery C, First New York Light Artillery, from June 30. 1863, to

Cyrus Morton Cutler Letters From the Front - From October, 1861 to September, 1864 (1892). Cyrus Morton Cutler was in the service of 1864, (1886). Stevenson was Surgeon to the Twenty-Second Kentucky Infantry during the Civil War,

–

Soldiers

Meade

Contemporaneous Exposition. With Letters, Now First Published .. (1879).

James Shepherd Pike

In the second of two installments of letters, William Wallace (1830-1920) of LeRoy, Dodge County, recounts his experiences as a soldier

David R. Garrett

Civil War letters of Private Elias Baxter Decker of Tipton, Indiana, 75th Indiana Infantry, company G, 1857-1865 (1857).

Life and Letters of Admiral D. G. Farragut, 1879.

David Glasgow Farragut

Chauncey Herbert Cooke

Wilder Dwight

1862-63 (1895).

Sanitary Commission (1864).

Alfred J. Bloor

The Life and Letters of Margaret Junkin Preston, 1903.

relations between the Northern and Southern States, and of the subsequent efforts of the "Committee of Nine," in 1869, to secure

A narrative of the leading incidents of the organization of the first popular movement in Virginia in 1865 to reestablish peaceful

Alexander Stuart

Elizabeth Vincent

Virginia Clay-Clopton -  A belle of the fifties; memoirs of Mrs. Clay of Alabama, covering social and political life in Washington and the

Frederick W. Seward

John McLaughlin

A Southern Woman's War Time Reminiscences (1905).

Sanitary Commission

t Ulysses