My dear Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson,

Your letters have been received and I regret that I should have failed to reply to the first so long ago.

Reached Washington from Tulunth last evening.

Gen'l Van Vleet. Their 2.M. of depot of New York
No. 6, State Street NY.

E. C. Ellery. No. 596
Grand St. New York.

On the 6th left Washington for Harpers Ferry expecting to meet a battle there. Had taken 4 teams of Col. Rector, located at his office. a large supply of commissary stores accompanied by Mr. Weller, Mr. Baker driver George. Morton. Peter Glass John Wills (Conf.) & Wesley Olson NY-travelled and camped as usual reaching Harpers Ferry the third day and found that the troops had passed over the Bridge at Berlin. After some deliberation we followed, at the first-end of the Portun Bridge one of Peters mules ran off and we delayed the progress of the Army for 20 minutes till it could be extricated; then we passed over and followed on; in the afternoon York had changed work with our ambulance driver, James and he was run off, an embankment of five feet upsetting the heaviest wagon, breaking the bows, and
