SUNDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1863.

Rode out to the front at Nine A.M. with Capt. Strang.

Pampe. Shendon and last number. Am line - some small in front. Quite cut

No news from the front. Rumor that 9th Corps was to go to Ballou's Gap.

Heard good news.

Rumors that

Hoover had shifted Bragg. Fine day.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1863.

Rode out with Col.
Bosson to see the

Pampe, Called of 9th Bosson -

Beautiful morning Pleasant ride as could be. Some usual letter from Bosson.

Some cheering order
by Col. Bosson

Weather fine - clean and cool.

No news from any source.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1863.

Role over to Col. Strong - pleased with. Made my monthly returns to Col. Strong.

Various rumors about Camp but no enemy in sight.

Rode from condition. Health pretty good.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1863.

Girl: Enquirer. Complicated from our front. Crossed the river toward Missouri. Sus. Wm. & Mrs. - come to take.
THURSDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1863.

Next to Genl. Moore's and Genl. Foster's next visit the 2nd Stranding Plant selected place for some small Eastern work. A heavy plan to fortify. Begins progressing well. Rode to Edinburgh and returned to Camp. Genl. Foster to Knoxville.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 25, 1863.

Twenty Eighth Birthday. Quiet still day. didn't much leave the hotel.

Most of the officers took dinner with Co. F at Thomas Court and once did at home. Went into a tent much better. Some officers and they went to Distancing their Whiskey authorized to express to one. Fine day. Bedelle returns from Iron Station on enemy. Saw in fighting some.
SATURDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1863.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1863.

Tired all day to go the books over the river but failed. Most two field offices detailed for duty on Thursday. Sent Capt. A. W. Fitch to Pensacola. McNeill went also. He wrote from some other.

Robert Browner. Richard Carson from J. C. Williams. Received unds. No news from any power.

Tom Barrow. Richard Carson from J. C. Williams. Received unds. No news from any power.

We have - Mother's Bridy doing well.

Health fine.
Wednesday, December 30, 1863.

Boo arrived from home, and a splendid thing it was. God bless the kind and visiting the works on the other side—slow progress—letter written. Bridge doing family.
