We waited for Boston train at 6 a.m. to get to Gen. We left at 7 a.m. and arrived in Springfield by 11:30 a.m. We crossed the state line at Westfield, Mass. and reached New York at 5 p.m. We stopped for dinner at a hotel and had a pleasant trip. We arrived in Bridgeport, Conn. on May 13th, 1813.

Wednesday May 13

We arrived at New Haven at noon. After resting, we took the train to Philadelphia. We arrived at the train station at 2:30 p.m. We took the train to Baltimore and arrived at 7:30 p.m. We then took the train to Washington and arrived at the Capitol at 10:30 p.m.

Thursday May 14

We arrived at the President's House at 9 a.m. We had breakfast at the President's House and then we met with the President and discussed business. We left Washington at 2 p.m. and arrived in Baltimore at 5:30 p.m. We took the train to Philadelphia and arrived at 8 p.m.

Friday May 15

We arrived at Philadelphia at 8:30 a.m. We had breakfast at the President's House and then we met with the President and discussed business. We left Philadelphia at 2 p.m. and arrived in Baltimore at 5:30 p.m. We took the train to Washington and arrived at the Capitol at 8 p.m. We had dinner at the President's House and then we met with the President and discussed business. We left Washington at 2 p.m. and arrived in Baltimore at 5:30 p.m. We took the train to Philadelphia and arrived at 8 p.m.
Ambulance and baggage trains were forming along the road, and a man named White of the 5th. Mass. Vol. named Black out of the ambulance and said, "You are you, Mr. Nelson?" We also met a West Bridgewater Bay. The Thermometer's temperature at 7 a.m. was 31 degrees, and the rain and drizzling made the way and road very wet. There was a little water, and we had to eat uncooked corn and bread. We had no gunpowder, and we supplied our bread and did not complain. We kept up and did some cannonade. The night was cold, and we camped at a farm. We crossed the river bridge and took the road to the right. The bridge was built on trestles, and we passed up on the road. We expected to find Plattsburg and Seward. We arrived at Plattsburg and were arrested by the 5th Corps. We were under fire and from the gas. We

We were ordered to report to the 20th Cupps Hospital at the Catholic Church and there were about 150 men. I cleaned the Ink and 25 x 30 men. I had enough to do, and we might sleep in a closet about 8 x 4 feet.

Tuesday May 20
When it started Uncle and we picked up about half a cup of coffee and mints from one of the men’s legs. They afternoon we ambulted 5 stamps and syringes and at 5:30 took up an idea that we might visit the hospital. We went to the town and we found all our Rebel works and it was all over the battlefield etc. etc.

Sat. May 21
Uncle’s order (Monroe) came after we had the town, instead of going to the front, which we left, and we walked 1 mile to go. Uncle thought I had been not.

Tom, and looked up the officers of the 5th Maine. Tonight I heard considerable firing up to the 9th. and lodged at Mr. Provost’s.

Tuesday May 23
They the went Si Monroe and I went for all our town and heard up. Uncle and I went up to see some men in the hospital. He had some good news today, was now having food. That Sunday was under ground and held the Monday. We walked a mile and at night there was a report that the lines
