Executive Order of the 20th day of Aug. 1866,

Revised March 2, 1867, Set at Large

Summary of Acts which pertain to the pay of enlisted men.

By Act Nov 16, 1802 (Stat. at Large Vol. 2, Ch. 9, p. 133) the monthly pay of privates in U.S. dragoons at $5. This continued until July 5, 1838 when it was raised to $8 per month, two dollars per annum until expiration of service (Stat. at Large Vol. 5, Ch. 162, p. 258). This last was by Act July 1, 1838 (Stat. at Large Vol. 5, Ch. 194, p. 308), limited to $12 per month, one dollar being retained thereon until expiration of service.

On 4th Aug. 1854 (Stat. at Large Vol. 10, Ch. 247, p. 585) the said pay was increased to $4, or $11 for months at service to continue for 3 yrs from & after 1st Jan. 1855, or until otherwise fixed by law.

On 6th Aug. 1861 (Stat. at Large Vol. 12, Ch. 63, p. 326) the said mentioned pay increased to $13 per month to continue for 3 yrs from & after Aug. 6th 1861, date of act, or until otherwise fixed by law.

On 20th June 64 (Stat. at Large Vol. 13, Ch. 145, p. 144) it was enacted that on or after the 1st May 64 & during the continuance of the present rebellion privates of engineers & ordnance of 1st class should receive $8, & of 2nd class $6, for months to continue for 2 yrs & 6 months, or until otherwise fixed by law.

On 2nd Dec. 1867 (Stat. at Large Vol. 14, Ch. 145, p. 222) it was further enacted that provision of Act of June 20th 64 above in that act would be continued for 3 yrs, from & after the 20th day of Aug. 1866, the date of the President's proclamation announcing the close of the rebellion which time will not be a matter of convenience.
The proceedings and finding in the case of private Russell Hammon of 6th company 1st M's. Inf. which are approved except the finding upon the specification to second charge, which is disapproved.

The court should have found the facts specified therein and attached no criminality thereto. The sentence with he is represented at least Washington, D.C.

For one the record of this service as exhibited in the morning report book of his company, it is manifest he is looking materially as a soldier. It is believed that the policy of the Government to keep in the service a soldier who constantly disobeys all his obligations and

It is therefore ordered pursuant to the authority contained in the 11th article of War that the expiration of the term of confinement by the sentence of the court the said Russell Hammon "A" be discharged. He discharged the service of the United States.
