Thursday

As is usual for a soldier “we done our duty”. Nothing of importances going on today more than oh and only other thing is that 8 o’clock marks the duty. 9” “silence. Oscar Owen.
Friday
As the day passes there must necessarily be something with which to mark the page of history. I can only say that I am in the U.S. Army camped near Nashville last, whether we will go from here is a question which is daily discussed.

Saturday
We are still at our camp, one from Nashville. There is nothing of importance to mark the blank page. We are in an unorganized condition as yet.

Oscar Owen

Sunday
As I neglected to take any note of to-day I am unabl to give any particulars of it, more than we are in camp.

O Owen
Monday.

There is no telling what a week may bring forth; there let not too little a moment of time of which we will fail having to give a strict account. Let me mark the blank page in my history with sentences that will stand good forever. O. Owen.

Tuesday.

I cannot pass this day by without stamping my page with something that I will stand when I am no more. I think I can say that I love God and by his grace will serve him while I live, and hope to praise him through eternity. Oscar J. Owen.

Wednesday.

Felt much refreshed this morning. Day overcast—cloudy. Sat—my boots mended. Drilled in the afternoon. Ends, the day. O. J. Owen.

Monday

Morning opened beautiful and clear. The rain of yesterday having washed away all the filth of earth seem no to be revived.

Oscar Owen
Tuesday

Again the Earth is drenched with the falling waters which keep us all in close quarters except those who were so unfortunate as to be on picket or other guard duty.

Day ends: O. P. Owen

Wednesday

Rose with the voice of youth. Day pleasant. "The solemn, threatening, awful, great silence envelops the trembling earth; expecting an awful morn as the shades of night crept over the earth in detail of 924 men from Co. D were sent on picket in "low sap" while I slept heavy over my eyes. On Thursday Long before daylight I was on foot and cutting the supposed advancing enemy in vain. I looked were relieved at 14th, arriving at camp we struck tents and crossed over river. Day pleasant but cold. Day down to sleep in my train."

Friday

The shrill notes of the fife & the rattling of the unshuffled drums woke us only to be vexed with the duties of another day; moved across the river into a new and better camp, pitched tents, prepared something to eat: thus ends the day. O. J. D.

Thursday

After breakfast was over I prepared myself and went on to Regimental Guard on 2nd Relief. The day was very pleasant and I passed I fear without my noticing that advancement which is required. O. Owen.

Friday

I am not master of language to express my thoughts of the past night. Edited properly relieved and returned to rest. Washed my clothes and after dinner went out to fire my gun. O. Owen.

Saturday

The call of Reveille having sounded I rose to duty. I feel well. O! May this day be spent in such a way that I may be able to good account of it. And if soldiers went to meeting of 1st Owen.
Sunday:

At dawn of day, I awoke and rose with the dawning of youth. Having performed the duties that devolved on me as a soldier, and eaten my breakfast, I took a walk into the grove, where I read a chapter and applied my soul in prayer to God. O! how precious! O.S.R. Owen.

Monday:

I am a soldier in Co. A, 36th Regt. Ohio vol. infantry, camped at Carthage, Tenn. on the Cumberland River, called forth as a soldier in the duty of the day. A skirmish took place but fortunately for us it was only a skirmish drill. O.S.R. Owen.

Tuesday:

As the days pass they bring forth new things. So hath the day. I got a letter from home one day and I might state that Colonel I was taking some from the way. I have a bag of coffee at home. I shall be of use. Order!
Wednesday

The day is fine, but I'm sure we are up to hold our eyes fixed for old Morgan or any other who may assault our brave little bastion. Solomon is very troublesome to me; went to meeting, silence at 9 P.M. Owen.

Thursday

Today brings many anxious thoughts. The little band of only 5-people on battery, the ranks of which have been diminished either by sickness on the field of battle or by our loss in numbers. We had up in skillful management to all present to meeting; ends, O. J. Owen.

Friday

On guard at the boats last night; still trying to serve the Lord, and honor his name. We were on Battalion drill, performed as we never did before. The words all out green ones! Owen.
Saturday
I must not pass the time without giving an account of our Division (9 Regts.)
composed of 3 Divisions.
1st Infantry, 1st Battery of Artillery 21 Men.
2nd Brigade by the death of the 4th. 2nd Ohio
57th I.P.V. 3rd Brigade the Division commanded by Brig. Gen. C. V. Speers.
The day passed as usual, A. J. Owen.

Sunday
As the light of the day dispelled the darkness our first object is to make Brigade and Corps.
On the 2nd.
In the morning I held this hill of 800 ft. I could not enjoy myself from abroad of an active Head.

Monday
I was not surprised to find that 5000 of them were ordered out last after-corn. I was excused from going on this trip. The day appeared promising, O. J. Owen.
Thursday

Days and nights are swiftly passing. I am feeling well today, and my sickness is not disturbing.

Our men returned from a successful foray with 23 bushels of corn. We are in comfortable quarters.

She was found at 1 A.M.

Friday

Wednesday

We all met at breakfast, and I was told that I am getting well. We did not have any dinner today. Death, Monday, fell in the night.

I will often fear that such a man as Bridgman...shall never pass that on.

Thursday

Having prepared ourselves according, at 7 A.M., marched on grand roads and Enn Muster, which ends at 12 A.M. The afternoon was given to rest, and we went to a meeting evening.

Yours, D. Owen.
Friday.
Not feeling very well. I rose after breakfast was over. I went on guard at regimental guard house and tried to perform my duty as a good soldier.
The day was pleasant, but the duty thereof did not close with me till 12 P.M. Oscar Owen.

Saturday.

Unlike the duties of a peaceful and quiet life as the soldier-duty.
The toils of the day commence with him at the first peep of dawn of day, so it was this morning. I came off guard
8:30. Day very unpleasant.

Owen, O. G.

Monday, Sunday.
Slept most of the day. I felt very well. Went with dress parade.
On day has passed to reason no more. May it have been spent advantage.
Monday

As we are in camp, there seems to be nothing transacted today of importance with us, other than the regular duty performed by the soldiers. Paymaster and me [Tuesday] were paid off $375. Owen.

Tuesday

The paymaster has called this way again and paid us $6. Two months settling our clothing account. The day clear.

Wednesday

Rose this morning with good精神, got a haircut, went on a hike, fished, and had a great day. Felt well and happy. Count sign "George Town." Owen.
Thursday, after a broken night’s sleep, I got up made a cup of coffee and ate my breakfast. At the proper hours the relief guard came and put returning to camp in the rain. kept pretty cold today.

Thursday 19

I do not feel well. My mind runs on many things; God is my only help in time of need. Day pleasant.

Friday 20

Poor morning opened very wet and cold. Obstacys got our things went by the railroad and at 12.30 p.m. started for Cincinnati; we had a very disagreeable trip, after dark I lay down & tried to sleep.

Saturday 21

Having run all night, we arrived at the Queen City at 4. This morning received orders to report at the depot, book cars & went to Demon where we found a comfortable place to stay until night came. O. Owen.
Sunday: Today is one of the prettiest days of the year. No particular event. Wrote a letter to home. Evening went to meeting.

Monday: Spent the most of my time in the house. Wrote a letter to Charles Davis at Chattanooga.

Wednesday: Went to town.

Tuesday: Walked around most of the day. Nothing of much importance

Wednesday

Today has been
Chilly. I went to a ball at Challenor's house. We got first the best grub. Giving all quiet.

Thursday

This being Thanksgiving day I rose early and the first thing I read was Ps. and returned my heart felt thanks to God although given me so many blessings. I attended church at 9 a.m. I heard a good sermon. Our dinner was late. 3 P.M. attended meeting evening. This Thanksgiving

Friday

Rising from my bed I washed & had breakfast. I feel pretty well. ThisBesides near reaching us confirming us hopes of Denis Victory. The letter defeat of Brazi's Day please. Next day in mailing the new letters.
Saturday
I'm in the Hospital at camp Denison. I feel pretty well today; today and got a letter from home with some money.

O. J. Owen

Sunday
Cold day. A little snow, went to meeting in fore-morn; and wrote a letter home afternoon. Began to feel like Oscar Owen after lunch, went to evening meeting and was awake till morning. Messing out:

O. J. O

Monday
Many thoughts of other days fill my thoughts. Got a letter from home and one from St. Mary's Law and a Boulder is due to see.

O. Owen
Tuesday:
Morning opened bright and fair; I must confess that sin has overcome me and led me from the God in whom I trust. Took a walk to St. George, Meg's went to prayer meeting.

Wednesday:
Today is clear and cool; I feel better today than I have for some time; slowly the time passes.

Oscar Owen

Thursday: I am not contented here; day is fine; I content myself with the thought—that I will get out of here some time. Day is spent.

O. J. Owen
Friday
I passed most of the day in reading History of United State.

Day pleasant

begin to feel pretty well

Went to prayer meeting

O. J. Owen.

Saturday
For many though discovered that in 28 years leap years fall 4 times each to that 28 years bring about a revolution in which the leap years fall on the same days of week

as before:

Sunday:

Morning opened clear

After breakfest the Doctor passed round at 10'clock.

I went to meeting

At 2 P.M. went to prayer meeting; 2 meals today; evening

met with O. J. Owen.
Monday:
Feeling pretty well, I decided to venture to my Reg't. So I got the doctor to report me to my Reg't. Washed my clothes and prepared to go. Reported at headquarters to start on the 8th. Drew some clothing. Felt very chilly. Quit sick in evening. Owen.

Tuesday
Rose to go away but found myself too sick to stand it. Having been sick all night, resolved not to go. Took a dose of physic; eat nothing of anything until night. Died of consumption.

O. Y. Owen

Wednesday
 Tried to move around but found myself no better than yesterday. and took to bed. Felt very bad all day. Day closed. Mrs. got a letter from A. Davis. Oscar Owen.
Thursday
Still feeling pretty bad; able to set up part of the time; day passed off about as usual.

Friday
I feel a great deal better this morning after breakfast over. I wrote a letter to Father; got a letter from Balkis. Day cloudy and bad. My course is in the path. As God may protect.

Saturday
I feel some better morning having bad but feel well cleared off & booked much better. Wrote a letter to Mary. Owen.
Sunday
This morning opened dull and heavy;
I attended meeting at 11 o'clock and enjoyed the meeting very much;
I wrote a letter to Sister
Bulah; I feel better.
Eating well & I did not go to meeting.

Monday
Day very cold and dusty, and I kept within doors most of the time; I am in a good warm house with plenty to eat, drink and wear; a good bed to sleep on in Camp Dennison Hospital Ohio in 4th Ward.

Tuesday
I must here say that I have wandered in sin; but I by my error and trust God will forgive me. Still on the friend, clay pretty cold.

Owen O.J.
Wednesday

I got up this morning dressed and washed and took breakfast. The weather has taken a change and by 10 o'clock the smart flies quitely briskly and the heavy clouds that hanging over the earth plainly show that winter is here. Examined by Board; feel pretty well. Oscar

Thursday

I rose this morning as usual. The day seems much warmer.

Drew a letter to brother Charlie; every thing passed off quite pleasantly.

Day's night are hastening on how important time.

Closes at 8 1/2. O. J. Owen

Friday

This morning is much colder which I found by going over.

To the office. This morning got a letter from home. Geo. from Lorenita, Whole Home. Thus Saves a day. O. Owen.

Saturday
I rose as usual.
I went through with things all right.
Day cool & much like winter.
I enjoy myself well.
My thoughts are continually on my brave comrades; on the Southern Plains: Oscar, Owen.

Sunday
Morning finds me well.
I attended meeting at 1/2 past 10 A.M., at 2 P.M.
Wrote two letters one to Dorinda & Lili-Bulah.
Spent the day in a pleasant way; closed the day at 10: Oscar.

Monday
I got up at 6: Morning cool & clear; went to depot.
Felt uneasy all day but nothing serious: I am well and can eat enough.
Sunset clear; did not reflect to go.
Tuesday

I got up this morning well. The day is cloudy and looks like snow. I finished reading my Testament through twice the fifth time since coming into the service. Reported to go to my Regiment; all quiet.

Thursday
Thursday

The great and memorial year of Eighteen hundred and sixty-three has closed; in which many battles have been fought, and many brave soldiers have closed their earthly career, and left wives and children, brothers, sisters, and parents to mourn their loss.
January 3 minutes past 12. EDITED: THE WEATHER IS FROZEN. SNOW 8 INCHES. I AM WELL. HAD A FINE CHAIR TONIGHT WHERE I WILL TO BE NEXT NEW YEAR WHERE I WAS 4 YEARS AGO. I'M SENSIBLE OF THIS MAN'S TREATMENT. MUCH REST.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO YOU, WHILE WE'RE GATE AND NOT IN TROUBLE. I WAS AT THE BAR LAST NIGHT AND ONE KNEW WHERE I MAY BE TONIGHT.
