Sir,

In the absence of the Adjutant General, who has been despatched to Wilmington, where nine companies of the Regiment of Volunteers will be, before this reaches you, I feel it to inform you, that I regretted to learn by the last mail that Ziba B. Fremont, the mustering officer of the United States, would leave Charleston on the 10th of Feb. Your last letter to the Adjutant General, informing me your company will be there by the 15th of Feb. In the event that you do not find him then, you will apply to William Comstock, Esq., and receive the bounty of the State for your Company, and proceed with your command to Fayetteville, where your books will be furnished to be copied and then sent to the mustering officer of the United States, or to the Commanding officer at that mustering ground.

The Adjutant General heard before we went letter from difficulties in the organization of their company, which can only be inspired into by a court martial.

I have to perform also the office
you. Let & sincere, efforts are being made, to create nothing & deception among the volunteers. I hope your company will proceed straight forward in the performance of its duty, and suffer nothing to break the engagement into which they have entered to serve their country.

I have the honor to be with high respect
Your obedient servant

July 13, 1852.

Mrs. Mary Ervin,
Care Capt. Blalock,

Dear Madam,

I obtained and sent you to the late Capt. Blalock on the 5th January last a land Warrant for 160 acres of land, in memory of Mr. A. Ervin deceased.

I obtained a settlement a short time since of your claim for arrears and three months interest, thus amounting to £30.44. As the papers forming the claim were drawn up by one, no profit is from being applicable. I presume you will not be dissatisfied with any charging the sum of £10. for the warrant, and 20 per cent for the arrears 4%.

The account stands thus:

Amount received £30.44.
