He started from Ellis's Row, at 5 o'clock this morning and marched to the Rail Road, and took the train for Petersburg, and from there took the extra boat, P. & O. City Point, where we arrived at about Eleven o'clock A. M. We had to wait about 2 hours, when we went on board the Flag: Bruce boat as many of the officers coming off Petersburg was quite a contrast in our appearance, as they all had new uniforms, and we had nothing but rags on us. We started down the river about two hours before dark but only ran until that time when we anchored in the river.
MONDAY, APRIL 13, 1863.

The started quite early this morning and reached Fort Leavenworth about eleven o'clock A.M. Staid in town all day took a United States Post Office in the Eve and started for Ann Arbor.
TUESDAY, APRIL 14, 1863.

The railroad reached Annapolis about 11 o'clock this morning and stayed at the City Hotel. I found the Btn at last Sunday at 3 o'clock. They have their orders to leave and I suppose they will go as soon as they are paid. Maj. Smith's staff, all of them, left. Capt. Campbell, Capt. Weed, Capt. Hall, Capt. and myself are boarding at the house the rest of the boys are stopping at the American
We reported to the Col. Commanding the party also went up to the Barracks and drew some clothing and bought some so that we are clean once more.
We went to the Barracks at 8 a.m. this morning and were mustered to bay. It has rained almost all day so that the coal of the stoves were done to us. The rain has an order been received this afternoon to report at the Paroled Camp at 9 a.m. tomorrow morning at 9 a.m. to be mustered and be...

cold raining before we got home as it was very hot and nasty the rest of the day. Maj Hall and Capt. Bunting left this afternoon the rest of the boys that came last week will come in the morning but we have to wait for orders I am having my teeth fixed.
FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 1863.

It was quite pleasant this morning, and I hope it will remain so. Mrs. Hall's father and mother came here on the morning train. We were much disappointed at not finding him, but he will wait for them at Baltimore. I had quite a long talk with them. I promised to go and see them if I went to Chicago. They live at 162 Mich. Ave. At all events we are not sailing this afternoon and all of us carried some apples. Had a very pleasant time at Bunnington & of the 5th Bidd. I slept there last night.
SATURDAY, APRIL 18, 1863.

Kentucky Horseback Riding, in the morning.

Boat-trailing in the afternoon.

I had an opportunity to talk with Mr. Brown and make an appointment.

The wind was strong, and I wrote a letter to my mother.

Ethan and I went down to the river.

And finally, the sun went down.

I had a good time.
Sunday, April 19, 1863.

Wrote to Sister Mullinik to Boarers. Went to Church to the Episcope Julian Church. Took a walk in the afternoon and read the best of the day.
In day it is raining all day & last night home most of the day.
It is cloudy today but no rain. We went down and engaged board at Mrs. Henderson's for four dollars per week. Will go and stay until to-mor-

Set out Amber this morning and left for Baltimore at 3 O'clock. But there is no train going out until tomorrow.
SALTIMBO, APRIL 25, 1863.

Left Beltsmore on the Baltimore & Ohio R.R. at 8 A.M. Left 7:30 A.M. After a stormy start, we got to Point of Rocks. Here we lay a hand slide detained us until 9 p.m. dark.
We got as far as Peabody Reach, and Reach, on the Ohio River, about 60 miles above Chillicothe. There are very large banks as the Reeds came in about an hour after we left. Oak and sand live in the banks and some of the banks burned a bridge. I saw a man have to stay. Some of them are, I'm sure, to make me feel at the Peabody Reach.
Left Be lawn at 4 o'clock this morning, 0 his cen. R. went as far as 2 on work and later 4 to train for the small-at 2 o'clock PM.
I agreed to meet Mr. Young at terminal on Wednesday May 1st.
