Stopped for the night near Ray
Dinner at 10. Very warm and sunny.
22.
Reville at one in the morning, as usual delayed, by the storm until after sunrise. Stopped half an hour for dinner at Buck's Creek, where the river was ford later in the afternoon. Crossed Black River & stopped on this side, the hardest one of the Regt has yet made.

Reville at 4, started at 6, marched into the old camp about one o'clock, unless whom another army order came to fall in again
and march through the City, & galloped 1 1/2 miles distant, & close to the River bank, named as we were coming to the new camp, as during the night.

24.
Teams were preparing the ground of the Regt, from the old camp to the new one, and came for our car-late in the evening, we are setting up our tents without any regard to order, as it is not certain where we will camp here permanently.
Sent in a regiment to Drill for clothing & camp equipment.

On the 26th, per order, to list of the men in the Co. who were here been with it on the campaigns against the enemy, & to pack their haversacks.

Their duty, Capt. Byrns, the change papers came to the Co. & Maj. Bradstreet has been appointed Acting Adj’t.

Start out for Camp at 6 a.m. Right down after getting the bed and everything ready to get aboard the boat. 1 a.m. P.M., Rej. 10 a.m. S. 5. T. on the Mendocino Bay. Set for Corral Head Hospital. Describe the hole.

D. at Midnight to take charge of detail loading the stuff of the Rej. on the Dismant. Rej. went on at 6 in the morning. Headed for the Dismant. Rej. at 5. Part of the town under the hill. One thing that gave animation to the picture were the crowds. went off the boat at 6 o'clock, marched to our camping ground a mile above town on the cliff near the river. It is the most pleasant place for a camp we have seen. On order from Gen. Oglethorpe the officers of the regiment are prohibited from molesting the property of citizens.
Detailed officer of the 1st Guard, 7th Corps, in the Pine Ridge Route, 1 mile from town & about 5 miles from camp. Citizens allowed to drive into the lines, without question are passed on by a guard from Prison Yard.

Complete evacuation. Return of clothing camp & Garrison U.S. Army to go on board transports to go on ward transport, C.P. arrives.

The gospels of our war were the first tokens to the River Severn were wheeling all night for the Regi.

11.

At 3 am. the morning, the Regi went from the camp and marched to the landing of the same delay went on board steamer Deschen great confusion in the bustling in getting the stuff of the Regi aboard, our 1st was the first to get his things on board, without then reached Port Hedley. We at 7 in the evening.

12.

H. W., already dead on board. He was taken in sick at Caney, with one other patient was brought on the Regi with the Regi, he was buried on shore. As we have no time to go out the grave before the boat started, reached the Caney at 10 a.m., and went off the Regi on 10 a.m.
Started after breakfast to cross Campground Plain about 1/2 mile north of the landing. It is an undigested turn and a good place for a camp. The map objection is we are 2/3 mile from the same. After we have to get our water heavy rain took after we reached camp.

Grand review of the Corps by Gen. Grant. Wrote to Champ Galtam on the 8th of Sept., with Dr. Duane of the 3rd O. A. M. Our fair long hair men joined the Corp. The King gave us a gift from home to send presents for some of the boys.

We are expecting an order to snow down the prevailing opinion that we will go to Galveston, Texas. There plans of Dr. Orr to grow up our tents & Form suckers.
Wrote letters to Father & to Brother. Think he will come when he leaves here & to Brother don't tell to be well.

The 11th: Met Volta had circus parade at O. & Orleans. Gen. Banks was present & after the parade gave a little of the receipts to the prisoners. The best received it...

the men carry with them a blanket and cover besides the their arms.
Sunday.
Revilled at 2 in the morning. Went on board the Newcomer at 6 am. Started for Apache at 10, went on board the Core. Left Brashear City at No mid-night.

Monday.
Reached Brashear City at 10 A.M. While waiting near the railway station, two officers in Co. G had a difficulty with some Mormon boys. At 12 the Regiment was called into line & after standing in the sun for an hour & a half, we found a place where we could camp, we are a short distance north of the town.

Tuesday.
Has been a very dull day, there is but little to do without ink to write. The City is not worth seeing. Some of my boys crossed the river to the Jutensian to get water. When they were nearly to Shre Combie, a pistol shot killed a horse, and the men fell on them. The whole was killed very near them but died in turn.
Wednesday

Commenced missing with Capt. Smith. Note to Father. First Brigade sent out a reconnoitering party up [the] River. The Provost Corps are throwing up fortifications in front of the river, they began yesterday. Federal of the compassionate wells for winter.

Thursday

The 1st Dec 1864.

Crossed the Bay on transports. Gen. W. L. Smith in command of this Div. The first train from Negros came in public with supply. Several outfits of White soldiers also came in during the day. Guns fired on the opposite side of the bay late in the afternoon, by report of a party of Rebels.

Friday

Morning very cold. Our men have taken their baths with the tide. No girls or women about. Capt. Jones, 2nd Light Battalion with them. It is impossible to sleep comfortably with the air at this time. I spent last night in the Brigade quarters by Capt. Jones, 2nd Light Battalion. Camp M. on the Bay by one of the Regt.
Saturday

This detailed office of Camp guard a decided day. Dr. Brainard returned to the Regt.

Sunday

The weather is still cool. I was not well all day. Several shells were shot out of the fort of the day. Several dead horses were shot out of the fort of the day. In the evening a cause unknown to one received a letter from Brother.

Monday

Our details started for CHQ. with the detail. The troops had a few hours rest. In the evening took a walk with Big Towner in the evening and had an interesting talk with a squad of 'Regiment Soldiers.'
Tuesday

The order in reference to Martin Proutt was read on Dress Parole. He is sentenced to hard labor for three months forfeiture of his pay for that time. Receives offer of parole but declines. The detail sent to Camp returned at midnight.

Wednesday

Arill A.M. Officers

Thursday

Private, Richard Hughes, Co. G, 1st N.C. A.V., was struck out of camp, with his head uncovered. Help of it showed some time, he has been & So from one of his comrades. While we were in the woods of W.D. Spring.
September 25.

Friday

I was detailed of four men of Camp Green to write a letter to Father, P.M. The Surgeon received orders to send the sick back to the city. The first train had orders to stop in the Bowl at six tomorrow morning. As orders have yet come to the Regt.

Saturday

Of all days by one.

The only thing that prevents any interest in camp, is the order in reference to the enlistment of volunteers. Of great many men in the Regt. are anxious to enlist again, yet they can get in to the cavalry.

Sunday

A cloudy morning.

 Capt. G. A. McC. The Brigade must be reviewed by Gen. Ord. It was the most satisfactory review we have yet been on.
Monday

A Mr. Bought a Caddy of Tobacco of 36.  D.  Better, 3 per Bag.  Between 4 & 9 orders came to get ready to move across the bay.  Two Dragons and Carries everything belonging to the Regiment correct by the men reach into our camping place on the side at 12.  All men Blank to go in the way up. They did not come up, so to make it as nice comfortable as possible a line was made, continually until night. They did not come up & to make it as nice comfortable as possible.

Tuesday

A rainy, disagreeable day.  Our Dragons did not come up until night.  Then they built our tent in the bushes.  After an order came they we would march tomorrow morning.  Went to a Commissary in the afternoon.  I tried to get a supply for the once a week order for marching the next day after tomorrow.
