REVISED REGISTER
SOLDIERS AND SAILORS
OF
NEW HAMPSHIRE
IN THE
WAR OF THE REBELLION
1861-1866.

PREPARED AND PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY OF THE LEGISLATURE, BY

AUGUSTUS D. AYLING, ADJUTANT GENERAL.

CONCORD:
IRA C. EVANS, PUBLIC PRINTER.

INTRODUCTORY.

Soon after assuming the duties of Adjutant General, in 1879, I realized the necessity for a careful revision of the records of New Hampshire soldiers in the War of the Rebellion, as printed in the Reports of the Adjutant General for the years 1865 and 1866.

These Reports compare favorably with those of other States published at the close of the war, and are, perhaps, as correct as it was possible to make them at the time and under the conditions then existing. They were found, however, to contain numerous errors, and failed in many instances to give some of the most important particulars of a soldier's record.

Attention was called to the importance of such revision, and the urgent necessity for it, in my Annual Reports for 1883 and 1885, and in the latter year the Legislature made provision for the undertaking.

The several Acts under which the work has been carried on are as follows :

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE PUBLICATION OF A RECORD OF NEW HAMPSHIRE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS IN THE WAR OF THE REBELLION.

SECTION 1. The Adjutant General shall, as soon as practicable after the passage of this act, under the direction of the Governor and Council, prepare and publish a record of all soldiers and sailors who served in the War of the Rebellion from the State of New Hampshire; such record to contain the name, residence, date of enlistment, to what city or town assigned, date of muster in, rank, promotions, wounds received, date of discharge, muster out or death, date and place of death since discharge, or present residence, and such other facts as shall make the same, as far as practicable, a complete and concise military record of each soldier or sailor so serving; and for this purpose the Adjutant General is authorized to employ such clerical assistance as may be necessary.

SECT. 2. Two thousand copies of said record shall be printed by the state printer and distributed as follows, namely: One copy to each city and town in the State, one copy to each public library in the State, one copy to each Post of the Grand Army of the Republic in the State, fifty copies to the New Hampshire Historical Society, and the remainder to be placed in the custody of the trustees of the state library, who are hereby authorized to exchange the same for similar publications by other States, and to dispose of the same at cost of paper, printing, and binding.

SECT. 3. For the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this act, a sum not exceeding twelve hundred dollars is hereby appropriated annually for two years, commencing September 1, 1885, to be expended under the direction of the Governor and Council, and the Governor is hereby authorized to draw his warrant on the state treasurer for the said amount.

SECT. 4. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AN ACT IN AID OF AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE PUBLICATION OF A RECORD OF NEW HAMPSHIRE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS IN THE WAR OF THE REBELLION.

SECTION 1. The selectmen or assessors of each town and city shall, at the same time they distribute the blank inventories for the assessment of taxes for the year 1886, also distribute such blanks as may be seasonably provided by the Adjutant General for the purpose of collecting the information required by the provisions of the act "to provide for the publication of a record of New Hampshire soldiers and sailors in the War of the Rebellion," approved July 23, 1885, and every person having such information shall make answer in writing, so far as possible, to such questions as may be in such blanks, and the same shall be returned and delivered to said selectmen or assessors before the fifteenth day of April, as is provided by law for the return of inventories of taxable property. The papers returned to the selectmen or assessors, under the provisions of this act, shall be returned to the office of the Adjutant General by them within thirty days after said fifteenth of April.

SECT. 2. Any officer or person violating the provisions of this act shall be subject to a fine of fifty dollars for each offense, to be recovered in an action of debt by the Adjutant General, and all sums of money so recovered shall be applied in carrying out the provisions of said act of July 23, 1885.

AN ACT IN AID OF CHAPTERS 12 AND 75 OF THE SESSION LAWS OF 1885, TO PROVIDE FOR A RECORD OF THE NEW HAMPSHIRE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS IN THE WAR OF THE REBELLION.

SECTION 1. The record of the soldiers and sailors of this State, to be compiled under the authority of said acts by the Adjutant General, shall contain a statement of the number of men required and the number furnished for the War of the Rebellion by each town in the State under each call; and said record shall also contain the names of all men recruited under the first call in 1861, for three months, whether they were organized into the first regiment of volunteers, mustered out of service without being sent out of the State, or were re-enlisted for a longer term of service. Selectmen of towns and the mayors of cities as may be required shall cause such information concerning soldiers and sailors who are or have been residents of their respective towns as may be required for the purposes of this act, and of the acts of which this is an amendment, to be collected and forwarded to the Adjutant General, subject to such penalties for default as are provided in said chapter 75 of the laws of 1885.

SECT. 2. For the purpose of the continuation of the work required by said acts, a sum not exceeding fifteen hundred dollars is hereby appropriated annually for two years, commencing September 1, 1887, to be expended under the direction of the Governor and Council, and the Governor is hereby authorized to draw his warrant on the state treasurer for the said amount.

SECT. 3. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE COMPLETION OF THE RECORD OF THE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE IN THE WAR OF THE REBELLION.

SECTION 1. For the purpose of continuing and completing the revision of the rolls of the soldiers and sailors of New Hampshire in the War of the Rebellion now in progress under the provisions of chapter 12 of the Laws of 1885, and chapters 40 and 75 of the Laws of 1887, the following appropriations are hereby made, viz.: Five thousand dollars for use in procuring necessary copies and abstracts from the war, navy, and other departments of the federal government, and five thousand dollars for the work of revision in this State; provided, that no part of said sums shall be expended except so much as shall be found necessary for the proper prosecution of the revision, and that said sums shall be expended under the direction of the Governor and Council. The Governor is hereby authorized to draw his warrant on the state treasurer for amounts above stated.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

— From Pamphlet Laws of 1889, chapter 3.

AN ACT TO CORRECT A CLERICAL ERROR IN THE ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE COMPLETION OF THE RECORD OF THE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE IN THE WAR OF THE REBELLION, PASSED AT THE PRESENT SESSION.

That whereas in lines five and six of section 1 of the act entitled "An act to provide for the completion of the record of the soldiers and sailors of New Hampshire in the War of the Rebellion," approved July 17, 1889, reference is made to "chapter 12 of the Laws of 1885, and chapters 40 and 75 of the Laws of 1887," and whereas said reference should be to chapters 12 and 75 of the Laws of 1885, and chapter 40 of the Laws of 1887; therefore,

SECTION 1. Said act approved July 17, 1889, is hereby amended so that instead of reading "chapter 12 of the Laws of 1885, and chapters 40 and 75 of the Laws of 1887," in the fifth and sixth lines of the act as engrossed, the reading shall be as follows, viz.: "chapters 12 and 75 of the Laws of 1885, and chapter 40 of the Laws of 1887."

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

— From Pamphlet Laws of 1889, chapter 68.

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR THE IMMEDIATE COMPLETION OF THE REVISED RECORD OF NEW HAMPSHIRE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS IN THE WAR OF THE REBELLION.

SECTION 1. The revised and corrected record of New Hampshire soldiers and sailors in the War of the Rebellion shall be completed and published by the Adjutant General forthwith, in accordance with the provisions of law already enacted to govern the preparation and publication of the work. Such statistics of regimental losses and other summaries of facts shown by said record as the Governor and Council may deem appropriate, shall be at once prepared and incorporated in the work. For the purposes of this act, a sum not exceeding eight hundred dollars, to be expended under the direction of the Governor and Council, is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, but the appropriation shall not be available for any part of said clerical work not completed within six months after the passage of this act.

SECT. 2. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect upon its passage.

— From Pamphlet Laws of 1893, chapter 17.

Under the authority of the foregoing, the work was commenced and has been pushed as fast as was practicable. Accuracy rather than rapidity has been the governing idea, and no efforts have been spared to make each individual record accurate and complete. Nothing has been taken for granted or without verification, when possible, and the records as they appear are practically official.

The plan adopted of having the names in each regiment alphabetically arranged, instead of by companies, is a new departure and has not been followed by any other State, as yet; but it will, I think, commend itself by the ease and rapidity with which a soldier's name, with his full record, can be found.

Under the old plan if an officer was promoted or transferred to another company, or a soldier received a commission, it was necessary to look in two or more places to trace him, and every additional promotion or transfer necessitated a further search in order to learn his whole military history.

In this work, the complete record of an officer or soldier, in a single regiment, is given in one place, regardless of the number of promotions he may have received, or of the different companies in the regiment to which he may have been transferred; if a man served in two or more regiments, a cross reference showing the fact appears with his record in each regiment. In addition to the military record of each man, the Register shows the birthplace, age at enlistment, residence at enlistment, and when possible the town where credited on quota; which information, constituting an interesting and important part of a soldier's history, has not been given in full in the publications of this or any other State, thus far. The last known post-office address of each surviving soldier is given whenever it could be obtained, and the dates and places of death of those who have died since muster out or discharge.

It has been deemed advisable, although the acts providing for the work do not require this, to preface the register of each organization with a short sketch, by its own authorized historian, as in most instances, or by some prominent member thereof.

The official dates of the muster in and muster out of each organization are also given; the several brigades, divisions, and corps to which it was attached are shown, and a summary which is made as full and comprehensive as possible follows each register.

In the revision of the records the first step was to verify the spelling of names. This was done by comparing them with the signatures on the original enlistment papers, or by correspondence when the papers were missing. Then came the examination of Muster in Rolls, original Rosters of Companies, Detachment Rolls, Monthly Returns, Reports of Deceased Soldiers, Reports of Casualties, and Muster out Rolls. The Pay Rolls and Bounty papers in the office of the State Treasurer were also found to contain information of much value.

In addition to the official sources of information utilized, circulars were sent to every city and town in the State, and to the Posts of the Grand Army of the Republic; files of newspapers of the war time and town and county histories were examined, and every authority possible was consulted. The officers in charge of the National Homes for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers throughout the country very kindly furnished lists showing all New Hampshire soldiers residing at the Homes, and giving dates of decease of those who died while inmates.

In a number of instances when the muster out roll reported men as "absent no discharge furnished," or "not officially accounted for," the original discharges have been obtained from the soldiers, and the fact and date of discharge shown.

In many cases of incomplete or incorrect records there was nothing in this office from which the deficiency could be supplied; nearly 15,000 individual records were sent to Washington, some of them several times, and in nearly every case the information necessary was obtained from the war or navy department or second auditor's office. In this way a number of men who appear in the old reports as deserters or as not officially accounted for, were found to have been regularly discharged.

It was not practicable to send all cases of reported desertion to Washington, but where there was a possible doubt as to the correctness of the report, it was referred to the proper department, and thus many names were cleared from the stain of dishonor.

Undoubtedly some men are reported as having died of disease when the first, although perhaps not the immediate, cause of death was a wound. This is unavoidable from the nature of the official report, but when possible, corrections have been made.

The state records showing the town quotas were not carefully kept during the first year of the war, consequently the places to which men were credited cannot always be given, but when it could be determined this is shown.

No correct lists of the engagements or battles of New Hampshire regiments have heretofore been published, those given on the flag cases containing the colors of the "War Regiments" being incomplete and inaccurate, and without dates.

Following the sketch of each organization will be found a revised and corrected list of the engagements in which it participated, with the proper dates. These lists have been made with great care and after much correspondence and research; for purposes of verification extensive use has been made of the "Official Records of the Rebellion," published by the Secretary of War, and finally the lists were submitted for approval to the historians of regiments or to regimental committees. When battles were officially or popularly known by two or more names, all are given.

The register of the "Dartmouth Cavalry," so called, is given for the reason that no record of New Hampshire's war history would be complete without it. This company, although not properly a New Hampshire organization, was composed so largely of students of Dartmouth College as to acquire the name of that venerable institution. Its official designation was Company B, Seventh Squadron, Rhode Island Cavalry, and to Gen. Elisha Dyer, Jr., Adjutant General of Rhode Island, I am greatly indebted for his courtesy in furnishing the records of the company.

This State has no records of enlistments in the United States Navy or Marine Corps, and the only way by which they could be obtained was through clerks in the Navy Department and at Marine Corps Headquarters, who were specially engaged to furnish the material used in the Register. There was no way, however, to verify the records thus obtained or to discover and correct possible errors, clerical or otherwise.

Under the head of "Miscellaneous" is given, as far as they could be obtained, the names and service of citizens or residents of New Hampshire who served in the United States Army, United States Volunteers, and in organizations from other States.

I am indebted to so many for valuable assistance, advice, and encouragement in the preparation of this work, that it is impossible to particularize in every instance; but to Mr. Harry P. Hammond, who has been my chief clerk almost from the first, I am especially indebted for his valuable suggestions and intelligent coöperation, and I desire to express my appreciation of his faithful and untiring efforts to make the Register accurate and complete.

I am also under especial obligations to Hon. Albert S. Batchellor for his assistance in procuring necessary legislation, and for suggestions, counsel, and encouragement; to Gen. J. N. Patterson, late Second Auditor of the United States Treasury, through whose kindly interest many difficulties were overcome and data of the utmost importance obtained; to Mr. Solomon E. Faunce, of the Second Auditor's office, for the personal interest he manifested in the work and his untiring efforts to complete each soldier's record; to Col. Frederick C. Ainsworth, Chief of the Record and Pension Division, War Department, for many courtesies and most valuable assistance in completing records.

I tender my thanks to the regimental historians who have been willing and anxious to render all the assistance in their power, and who have freely furnished all the information in their possession.

It is not claimed that this work is free from errors or omissions, but to secure accuracy and completeness all has been done that fidelity and perseverance, inspired by enthusiastic interest in the subject, could accomplish.

AUGUSTUS D. AYLING,
Adjutant General.

FIRST REGIMENT NEW HAMPSHIRE VOLUNTEER INFANTRY.

(THREE MONTHS.)

By STEPHEN G. ABBOTT, Chaplain and Historian First Regiment New Hampshire Volunteer Infantry.

WHEN President Lincoln called for 75,000 men for three months to suppress the Rebellion, New Hampshire responded with an alacrity unsurpassed by any of the States. The proclamation was issued the 15th of April, 1861. Enlisting stations were immediately improvised, and between the 17th and the 30th not less than 2,004 men were enrolled.

The residue, after filling the First Regiment, were given their choice to enlist in the Second Regiment or serve out their time of three months as the garrison of Fort Constitution at Portsmouth harbor. Four hundred and ninety-six enlisted in the Second Regiment, and the remainder were sent to Fort Constitution.

The First Regiment rendezvoused at Concord on the Fair Grounds of the Merrimack County Agricultural Society on the east side of Merrimack river, the camp being christened "Camp Union." But a few days passed before the material of the regiment was crystalized into a completely appointed and equipped organization. A contract for fifteen army wagons and one hospital ambulance was placed with the firm of Lewis Downing & Son, of Concord. A supply of horses, averaging in cost $125, was speedily purchased, and the contract for harnesses was filled by James R. Hill, of Concord. So well, thoroughly, and expeditiously was this work performed, that on the 14th day of May, just fifteen days after his appointment, Quartermaster Batchelder informed the colonel that the regiment was uniformed, armed, and equipped, and field transportation for tents, baggage, and supplies was ready.

From the 1st to the 7th of May the regiment was mustered into the service of the United States. Baldwin's Cornet Band, of Manchester, under the leadership of Edwin T. Baldwin, joined the regiment early in May, and served until the regiment was mustered out; but as the law made no provision for regimental bands, the members were not mustered in until vacancies occurred in companies, when they were mustered in as privates or company musicians but continued to do duty in the band.

On the 25th of May, after appropriate public ceremonies, the regiment boarded the cars for Washington amidst the adieus and cheers of a vast concourse of citizens. At Manchester and Nashua it was greeted with similar demonstrations. An almost continuous ovation was tendered the regiment en route to Worcester, where it received a right royal welcome and was served to a princely repast.

The regiment arrived at New York, May 26, where it was received by 450 citizens, all sons of New Hampshire, and presented by them with an elegant silk flag.

The regiment arrived in Baltimore on May 27, and marched through the city to the Camden station to the tune of "Yankee Doodle," the first national air played in the streets of the city after the passage of the Massachusetts Sixth.

The regiment arrived in Washington at 1.30 o'clock A. M., May 28, and in the morning marched to "Kalorama," their camping ground, named "Camp Cameron." It was reviewed from the porch of the White House by the President, who soon after sent a special messenger to the camp to inform the colonel that his was the best appointed regiment that had thus far come into Washington.

In anticipation of Confederate forces at Leesburg, Va., crossing the river into Maryland, a brigade was formed and placed under the command of Col. Charles P. Stone, consisting of the First New Hampshire Volunteers, Ninth New York Volunteers, First Pennsylvania Volunteers, four battalions of District of Columbia Volunteers, and a small force of cavalry and artillery, with orders to march up the river, take possession of Edward's Ferry and Conrad's Ferry, and guard the river. On June 10 the brigade marched to Rockville, Md., and after a short rest on the Montgomery County Fair Grounds, christened "Camp Lincoln," on the 14th proceeded to Poolsville, arriving there June 15. Four companies of the First were sent to Conrad's Ferry, four miles from Poolsville, and from this point the river was guarded for many miles during the encampment.

July 3 the regiment marched to the Monocacy, eight miles, where it spent the Fourth, naming the locality "Camp Goodwin." On the 5th the regiment marched to Point of Rocks, six miles, giving the camp the name of "Camp Berry." From this point the tents and unnecessary baggage were sent to Frederick, Md., and the regiment resumed its march to Williamsport, passing through Sharpsburg and Sandy Hook, opposite Harper's Ferry, arriving at that place July 7, twenty-four miles from Point of Rocks.

The next morning the brigade marched for Martinsburg, Va., twelve miles, arriving there about noon of the same day, where it joined the Army of the Shenandoah under the command of General Patterson, making an army of about 25,000.

The approaching battle of Bull Run rendered it eminently important that General Johnston should be intercepted and prevented from joining in the engagement. This work was intrusted to General Patterson, but for reasons which may never be explained, instead of receiving in the morning marching orders, it was suddenly decided that there should be no movement until further orders. A subsequent investigation of the matter resulted in the supersedure of General Patterson by Gen. N. P. Banks.

On Monday morning, the 15th of July, the entire command, consisting of twenty-seven regiments and six hundred wagons, were on the march. The wildest enthusiasm prevailed among the troops when they found themselves on the road to Winchester. Bunker Hill, ten miles from Martinsburg, was reached about 2 o'clock the same day, and all were elated with the prospect of soon standing between General Johnston and the enemy at Manassas. The day was spent with only a feeble reconnoissance in the direction of Winchester, when on the morning of the 17th a retreat was commenced to Charlestown, twelve miles further removed from Winchester. The camp at Charlestown was christened "Camp Whipple." On the night of the 20th the first intelligence of fighting at Bull Run was received and was confirmed the next morning. July 21 the division marched to Harper's Ferry, six miles, and encamped on Bolivar Heights.

On the 24th Gen. N. P. Banks arrived on the ground, and much to the joy of the army—at least of the First New Hampshire Regiment—relieved General Patterson.

On the 28th of July the First Regiment New Hampshire Volunteers moved across the river and went into camp. On the second day of August their term of enlistment expired, and they made no delay in embarking on board the cars for home. They were paid off and mustered out, mostly on the 9th of August, and discharged at Concord.

The First Regiment New Hampshire Volunteers did no fighting, excepting the exchange of shots at intervals for two days across the river at Conrad's Ferry. In this affray none of our men were hit. The rebels admit one captain and two privates killed and about twelve wounded. The regiment, however, did a large amount of guard duty, a service, which, though unattended with much eclat, may have accomplished as great good as a victory on the field of blood and carnage. The regiment did faithfully all that was required of it.

If, as a regiment, its history is meagre, its individual members have an enviable record. Not less, probably, than five hundred members re-enlisted in subsequent military organizations. The First was represented in every regiment and every military organization of New Hampshire. Maine, Vermont, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, and New York regiments contained more or less members of the New Hampshire First, all of whom left a record of which the State may well be proud. Many of them sealed their loyalty and patriotism with their blood, or returned disabled for life. The names of Whipple, Stevens, Crosby, Batchelder, Fellows, Hazelton, Bell, Sturtevant, Clough, Drew, Dudley, and Kelly, as representatives of many others, will ever have an honorable place in the history of the Great Rebellion and a large place in the grateful memory of their fellow citizens.

The First Regiment New Hampshire Volunteer Infantry was attached to the Department of Washington May 27, 1861; to the Seventh Brigade, Third Division, Department of Pennsylvania, July 10, 1861.
